

“NOT to be missed... a gripping narrative.”

– The Los Angeles Times

“Bring the tissues for this powerful tale of the triumph of marriage equality.”

– The Washington Post

“A galvanizing real-life account of how devotion in the face of terminal illness and disenfranchisement brought together a widower and a group of ferociously principled lawyers who waged and won the legal battle for marriage equality.”

– O Magazine

“Deeply reported, vividly detailed, utterly humane... Grabs the reader and never lets go...”

– The Miami Herald

“Love Wins is a real winner and expertly crafted. You can tell it’s going to make a great movie.”

– Investigative Reporter Bob Woodward

“A tender story, inspiring, and ultimately a huge celebration....

You will never forget Jim Obergefell and his lawyer Al Gerhardstein, two men who fought with every ounce of will they could muster. This book will become a classic.”

– Erin Brockovich

“Told with a novel’s narrative drive.... Taut, tense, and highly readable....

A remarkably rich portrait of America.... An excellent choice for book groups looking for exciting nonfiction. ”

– Booklist (starred review)

“I am recommending Love Wins to everyone I know. Rarely does a book of such uncommon beauty come around, one that digs beneath the headlines to its human heart.”

– New York Times bestselling author John Grogan